FOREWORD

Throughout the school months, Madison Heights High School offers a full program of educational opportunities and extra-curricular activities. When we, as students, enter Madison Heights, we absorb the enthusiasm of our classmates and teachers. Upon graduation, we carry with us into the world a part of our beloved school.

It is the hope of the TREASURE CHEST staff that in this book you will find the fond memories to be treasured in years to come.

With this hope we present to the students of Madison Heights the 1959 TREASURE CHEST.

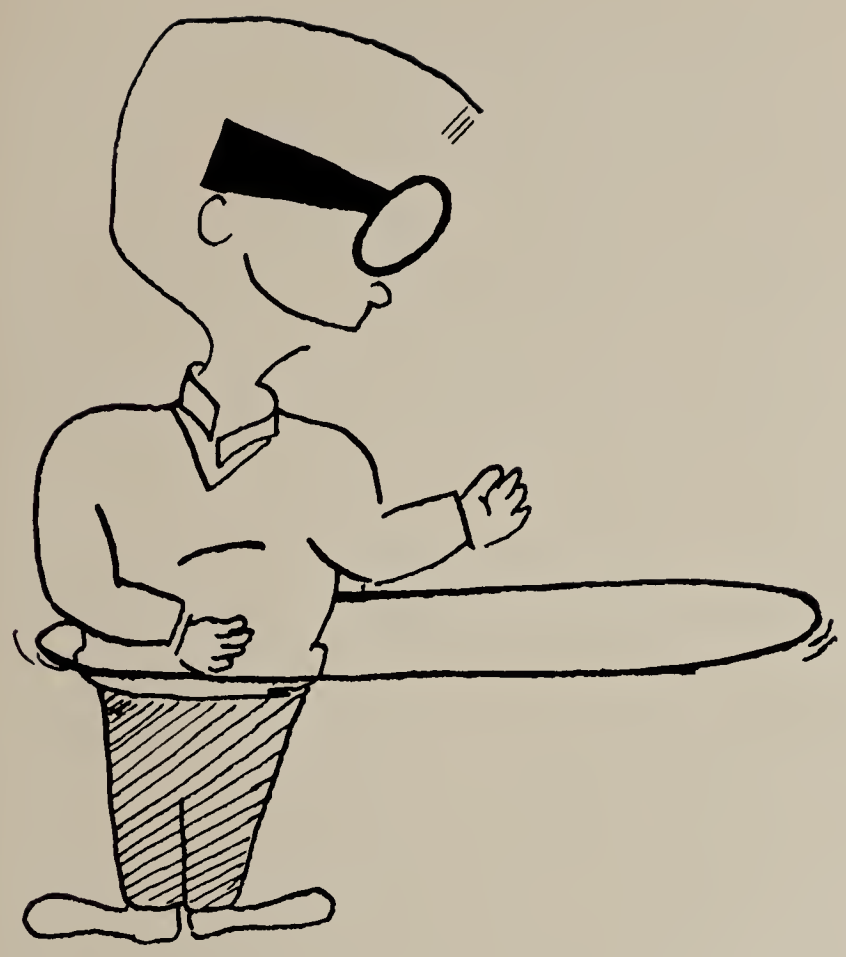
PRESENTING



Meet Eggbert, guide and companion throughout the 1959 TREASSURE CHEST.

Eggbert is quite the character, appearing at appropriate times, as well as inappropriate times, but don't let him "bug" you; he's really a rather intelligent guy.

So now--we turn Eggbert loose to roam these pages.

EGGBERT I

EACH DAY...WE

Here is the annual staff discussing plans for this year's TREASURE CHEST. From these many informal idea meetings emerge the finished product. Seated, left to right: Sharon Carter, Karin Morgan, Terry Vandygriff, Ruthanne Shaw, and Gwelda Price. Standing, left to right: Mr. Mitchell, sponsor; Lucretia Carroll; and Kathy Seulean, Editor.

How many of us can change a tire? This is just one of the many skills students learn in the well-equipped auto mechanics shop. Future mechanics receive excellent training in this department. Left to right: Ed Powers, Ron Genda, Mr. Thompson.

These advanced typing students are busy practicing their skills under the supervision of their instructor, Miss Raines. Each of these students is also a secretary to at least one faculty member.

Here at Madison Heights in our adequate laboratories we are able to gain a much wider scope of knowledge in the field of biology. Left to right: Mr. Jones, Janie Reynolds, Emmalou Crouse, Jane McElhoe.

ROAM THE HALLS OF THE SCHOOL WE LOVE...

WE Learn FROM CAPABLE LEADERS---

Under the careful watch of chemistry teacher, Mr. Marvin Gordon, David Newman, Patricia Norman, Sharon Fraumann, and Rex Green learn how to make oxygen.

The Madison Heights band entertains an impressed crowd at the Fall Festival, sponsored by the Anderson merchants.

HOMECOMING FESTIVITIES

The Madison Heights students join together to do the breath-taking "Mexican Hat Rock" in the Pirates' Den.

Miss Linda Sczesny, Homecoming Queen of 1957, presents the traditional bouquet of red roses to this year's Queen, Miss Grace Roberson, Senior. Looking on is Dave Roberts, honorary football captain, who crowned queen Grace.

Richard Pine, right halfback, is outrunning our homecoming foe, Noblesville, to recover that bouncing pigskin.

ENJOY MOMENTS OF merriment!

WE GROW THROUGH BETTER SPORTSMANSHIP

Down the field of aching limbs, chances for a goal are mighty slim.

Slide, boy, slide, one step nearer for a run for your side.

Catch a bouncing ball and put it in the basket, never let it get away.

AND experience

VICTORY, DEFEAT...JOYS AND SORROWS...

DEDICATED

For the past three years, Mrs. Margaret Furnace has offered outstanding service to the students of Madison Heights.

Mrs. Furnace, characterized by her own personal style of teaching English, speech, and French, devotes equal time and effort to every member of her class regardless of the student's ability.

She has been a great help in furthering the activities of the Forensic League and the Thespian Club.

It is with a feeling of utmost respect that the 1959 TREASURE CHEST is dedicated to Mrs. Margaret Furnace.

IN GRATEFUL RECOGNITION ....

A DEVOTED TEACHER

Mr. R. E. Collier, Principal

Mr. Robert Collier, principal of Madison Heights, with his fine understanding of high school students commands the respect of the student body and the cooperation of all faculty members. Under his direction, Madison Heights has become an outstanding school in all respects.

JUNIOR PROM

ATTENDANT
Miss Shirley Fraser

ATTENDANT
Miss Judy Welker

The setting for the Junior Prom at Linders "on the Point" on May 15, 1959, was a hugh Roman hall lined with classic white pillars reminiscent of ancient days of Roman splendor. The couples attending danced to the sweet music of the Purdue University Variety Band. The most thrilling moment of the evening was the crowning of the Prom Queen, Miss Barbara Buntin and her lovely attendants, Miss Judy Welker and Miss Shirley Fraser. This "Night of Enchantment," as was the theme of the dance, will be a night to remember by all those who attended and especially the hard working Junior Class.

"Night Of Enchantment"

These boys were selected to represent Madison Heights at Hoosier Boys' State this summer: Jack Leonard and Dan Imel were chosen as delegates and Tom Teague and Ed Greenwalt were alternates.

Chosen to attend Hoosier Girls State were: Janet Lacky, Ann Waggoner, and Bonnie Craig. Their alternates were Penny Boyes and Roberta Ecmundson.

Kathy Seulean received a first division rating at both the District and State Solo and Ensemble auditions.

Madison Heights is proud to have a senior girl win the county DAR award for the third consecutive year. This year's winner was Susan Anderson.

There were several essay contests sponsored during the year. Sharon Grigsby won first place from the school for her essay, "What Christmas Means to Me." Melinda McCullough received a first place from her theme, "Why I Want to Go to College." Steve Van Matre was awarded third place in the city for the "My True Security" contest.

"If only our play hadn't closed," says Marge Benson (Susan Anderson) to Tony Dennison (John Doyle) in one of the few serious scenes from the Senior Class play.

"Something is amiss," says Steve Van Matre during a rehearsal of a scene from the Senior Class play.

OUT OF THE FRYING PAN

"These cops mean business," could be the appropriate line in this scene.

"Look, Dottie, in very simple words, what are you trying to say?" says Norman Reese (Steve Van Matre) to Dottie Coburn (Nancy Whitney) in a dramatic scene from the Senior Class play.

The original Mr. Banjo entertained Madison Heights Students at a convo.

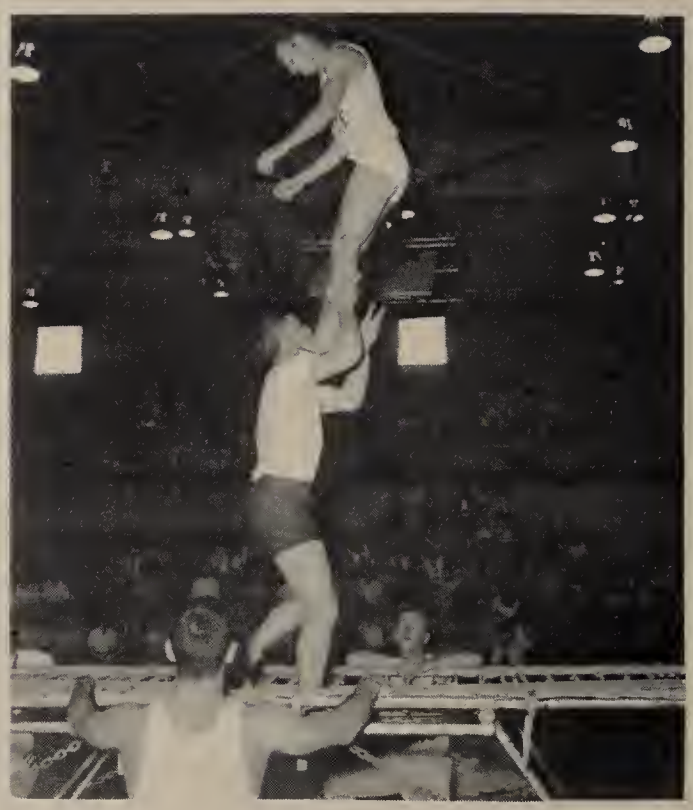
Simon, Theodore, and Alvin sing their chipmunk song at the Arthur Merry Dance Party a part of the Christmas Convo. This skit was given by the speech class. Left to right are: Steve Crisler, Dean Davis, George Ponsler, and Bob Harreld.

CONVOS

The Christmas Dance Party closed with a beautiful waltz.



Students enjoy the trampoline demonstration given by the Ball State Gymnastics Team.

We are very proud of our band which took eighth place at State Fair Band Day. The band also won first place at the mermaid Festival, first place at the Farmer's Day State Fair Marching Contest, and second place at the Ball State Band Day Marching Contest.

Friendly relations are shown between countries at the Model United Nations General Assembly held by Anderson College. They are: Tony Kirkpatrick, Kathy Bloom, Gail James, and Steve Van Matre.

Crowd gives a rousing cheer for their team, the mighty Pirates.

The highlight of the Model United Nations Assembly was an address given by Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt.

Gary Doyle is having trouble keeping on the beam at one of Madison's science convos featuring physicist, Mr. Morris.

Highlighting the Homecoming festivities, sponsored by Student Council, was the crowning of the lovely queen, Grace Roberson. Her court included Barbara Buntin, Janice Swinford, and Carmen Goodrich.

The main attraction of the beautiful Senior Christmas Dance held in our front lobby was the announcing of the queen, Brenda Hiday. She is crowned by President Dave Roberts as Richard Chapman, her escort, looks on.

Pretty Diane Cunningham flashes her happy smile at Steve West as he hands her the traditional bouquet of roses of Queen of the Sweetheart Ball, sponsored by DeMolay. Madison was also proud to have Louann Cochran as her attendant.

ROYALTY REIGNS

Reigning over Scarlet and Black Week are Penny Boyes, Miss Scarlet, and Dave Roberts, Mr. Black. The other candidates were: Pam Tunget, Bob Thomas, Tim Barker, and Lynn Clevenger.

YOUR STUDENT COUNCIL

"We, the students of Madison Heights Senior High School, In order to provide representation for the students; to provide a place for expression and for action; to promote better relations between the faculty and students; to develop knowledge of working procedure of parliamentary law and government; and to do everything necessary for the promotion of the best interests of the school . . ." This paragraph taken from the preamble of the Senior High Student Council constitution explains why the students of Madison Heights sponsor, desire, and promote our student council.

The Student Council sponsored many activities this year. One of them was Homecoming activities. President Steve and Mr. LaRue count the ballots cast for Homecoming Queen.

Bob Hardwick from WFBM in Indianapolis was disc-jockey for the Student Council Conference Soc-Hop.

Representatives from several central Indiana high school student councils met in November to plan and establish an Eastern Central Indiana Regional Student Council Association.

IN ACTION

The Phi Mu Cru Combo played for the first Student Council soc-hop.

President Steve Van Metre going over morning announcements with Mr. Collier.

The Homecoming soc-hop was only one of the many soc -hops sponsored by Student Council, which were enjoyed by students after football and basketball games.

Black and Scarlet Week, sponsored by Student Council, brought forth many colorful displays by various organizations. The winning entry was the production of the Brush and Palette Club.

Student Council was in charge of the Open House held last fall. It gave parents a chance to meet and discuss students' interests and activities with their teachers and administrators.

This crowd of excited students enjoyed many other activities along with the football game during Homecoming such as the parade, the crowning of the queen, and the soc-hop. The committees of Student Council worked very hard in planning an enjoyable and memorable occasion.

This is a skit presented by the speech class in the big pep session during Black and Scarlet Week. This program helped in arousing our spirits for the exciting Sectional basketball games.

JUNIOR HIGH STUDENT COUNCIL

Junior High Student Council is the organization patterned after the Senior High Student Council for the members elected from the seventh, eighth, and ninth grade home rooms. It prepares these students for participation in school government in their high school years. Madison Heights is proud of the way these young students have taken on the responsibilities of their jobs. They have assured us that the future will be in capable hands.

The Junior High Student Council activities included this soc-hop after one of the basketball games.

ANNUAL STAFF

Kathy Seulean--Editor

Hardest working crew of Buccaneers in school! (?)

The primary goal of a yearbook staff is to prepare for the Senior Class, a pictoral record of the events and highlights of their last high school year. Another objective is to produce a book that underclassmen and other leaders will find of literary value.

The staff of the 1959 TREASURE CHEST has worked diligently this year to provide this kind of yearbook for your enjoyment.

The National Thespian Society is an educational honor and service organization of teachers and students. The aims of the society are: (1) to establish and advance standards of excellence in all phases of dramatic arts, and (2) to create an active and intelligent interest in dramatic arts among students.

The purpose of Honor Society is fourfold: to create and maintain scholarship, leadership, service, and character. The requirements for membership are a "B" average or better with no "D's" or "F's" and a personality rating of "3" or better. The activities of Honor Society included a party, a display for Scarlet and Black Week, and a social project.

PEP CLUB

Always wearing the traditional colors of scarlet and black, is the Pep Club cheering our team to victory. This year they have a total of 96 members which are made up of seniors, juniors, and sophomores. Under the capable direction of Mrs. Louise Grantham, they have made a great showing at all of the games.

The Madison Heights Hi-Y Club is responsible each year for the Hi-Y Line of Dimes and the Easter Sunrise services. The club is based on three principles: spirit, body, and mind. The club is a service club for the betterment of relations between school and Y. M. C. A.

The Pirates opened the season with a thrilling last minute victory over North Central. Then they suffered a defeat at the hands of New Castle in a hard fought contest. Next came a victory over Hagerstown followed by a rout of cross-town rival Highland. After the Highland game the Pirates suffered a slump during which they lost to Noblesville, Wood, and Warren Central. They closed the season with a win over Alexandria. This win gave the Pirates a 4 - 4 record for the year, which is the best record ever compiled by a Madison Heights football team.

The cheerleaders show their appreciation to the football coaches for a good season.

After a very successful season, playing some of the toughest teams in the state, our Pirate linksmen really brought home the bacon by winning the State Championship at the Coffin Course in Indianapolis.

Paced by Dick Armstrong, state medalist, with an 18 hole score of 74, and four year veteran, Jerry Williams, with a 75; Dave Harmon and John Mills, contributed to a low team score of 317, good enough for first place honors.

Coach Gordon toughened the boys against some of the state's best teams during the regular season. The Pirates appeared in the tough LaPorte tourney for the first time and placed third the first time boys had played on that course.

Lost to the team by graduation were two real competitors, Dave Harmon and the little but mighty, Jerry Williams.

Congratulations to Madison Heights first State Champions. Win it again this year, boys!
